Your former client has contacted us to express concern about the case you have been handling, and that he needs to have his file returned in order to prepare for a motion hearing. Would you please contact him about this situation? You may reach the Bar's Ethics Helpline in the Office of General Counsel at 404 527 8720.

This is sent as a courtesy to you and simply for your information. No grievance has been filed against you at this time. You do not have to call me or to send copies of correspondence to me. Thank you.
